

Damien Hubert (Executive Director)

Damien Hubert has been the Director of the Alliance Française Vancouver (AFV) since 2014. He has over 20 years of experience in the non-profit sector and in the artistic and cultural domains. Previously, he has led other Alliance Française branches in Australia, Mexico, and Canada. He is a committed and dedicated individual who has devoted much of his work to promoting the French language and Francophone cultures. In recent years, he has worked on innovating the work of the Alliance Française de Vancouver through the building reconstruction project and the integration of new technologies into culture, such as virtual reality. He is heavily involved in the Francophone community in Vancouver, having been the founder and President of the Bastille Day Festival from 2015 to 2019.
