

Chris Adams Biography

Short Biography:

Chris Adams is an award-winning producer, director, and actor with a BFA in Theatre from UVic and musical theatre training from NYC's Circle in the Square. He is currently the Interim Artistic Director of RCMT and Co-Artistic Managing Director of Raincity Theatre. He is thrilled to get to work so closely with Valerie on this production and help lead a company that is so near and dear to his heart.

Long Biography:

Chris Adams is an award-winning director, producer, and actor with a BFA in Theatre from the University of Victoria and training from NYC's Circle in the Square. He is the Interim Artistic Director of Royal City Musical Theatre and Co-Artistic Managing Director of Raincity Theatre. His acclaimed Raincity productions include Sweeney Todd, Company, Cabaret, and Parade, which have earned multiple Ovation and Jessie Awards. Chris has directed for Kay Meek, Bring on Tomorrow Co, Metro Theatre, and more. Upcoming: directing West Side Story for CTORA. He is thrilled to get to work so closely with Valerie on this production and help lead a company that is so near and dear to his heart.