

Kyra Soo

Kyra Soo is a ballet dancer originally from British Columbia, Canada. She began her formal dance training at Goh Ballet Academy in Vancouver, where she honed her technical skills and artistry. Kyra continued her training through the Royal Winnipeg Ballet's (RWB) Aspirant program, completing it in 2021, and was invited to join the company that same year.

Since joining the RWB Kyra has performed in many productions throughout their diverse repertoire, with roles ranging from corps to principal. Some of her favorites include Clara in The Nutcracker, Giselle, and Snow White. Her repertoire also spans a wide range of characters in productions such as Swan Lake, Romeo and Juliet, Carmina Burana, Jekyll and Hyde, The Handmaid's Tale, Peter Pan, and many other RWB productions, allowing her to grow into both classical and contemporary roles. In 2024, Kyra had the honor of representing the RWB at the Fall For Dance Festival in New York. This year she has also worked with Greta Hodgkinson of the National Ballet of Canada, and choreographer Val Caniparoli, Maiqui Manosa, and Makaila Wallace for the Canadian premiere of Jekyll and Hyde.
