

Paula Cobo Botello

Originally from Mexico. Paula began her professional training when she joined The National School of Classical and Contemporary Dance in Mexico City. At the age of 14, she was the recipient of a scholarship to further her education at the Victoria Academy of Ballet in Victoria, BC. During her time there, she had the opportunity to participate in numerous national and international competitions and got to work with choreographers such as John Alleyne, Alys Pires and Jorden Morris to name a few.

Upon graduating in 2019, Paula joined Ballet Edmonton where she has worked with a diverse array of acclaimed choreographers such as Andrea Peña, Anne Plamondon, Ihsan Rustem, Shay Kuebler, Dorotea Saykaly, Emilie Lerich, Ethan Colangelo, Kirsten Wicklund and Wen Wei Wang to name a few. She has had the privilege of performing in renowned venues across Canada such as the National Arts Centre and more recently the Banff Centre for Arts and Creativity.

Paula remains committed to pushing the boundaries of her craft, always seeking new ways to connect with audiences and deepen her artistic expression.
