

Stephanie Petersen

Australian dancer Stephanie Petersen (Williams), has been a member of the American Ballet Theatre, HET National Ballet and The Australian Ballet. Notable performances include the principal role of "Myrta" queen of the Wilis in American Ballet Theaters' Giselle, Jerome Robbins' "Afternoon of a Faun" and Christopher Wheeldon's "After The Rain" with The Australian Ballet.

Stephanie has worked closely with legendary Twyla Tharp dancing her iconic works "In the Upper Room" and "Sinatra Suite" in New York City in 2022.

In 2009 Stephanie was a guest artist with Christopher Wheeldon's Morphoses, performing principal roles in "Commedia" and "Fool's Paradise" and in that same year she became the youngest ever winner of The Australian Telstra Ballet Dancer of the Year award and people's choice award.

Stephanie won the Gold Medal at the 10th Asian Pacific International Ballet Competition in Tokyo (2005) and upon graduating from The Australian Ballet School performed Odette/Odile in Swan Lake.