

Carmen Romero

Carmen Romero is a dynamic and award-winning flamenco dance artist, captivating audiences with her electrifying performances and innovative choreography. With a rich background in performance, education, production, and adjudication, she is a true luminary in the dance world. Notably, she coached global sensation Shakira in 2010 and proudly represented Canada at the prestigious 9th Annual Certamen de Coreografía in Madrid. Carmen is renowned for breaking barriers and creating dance that pulsates with passion and relevance.