

Gisele Ardosa

Gisele Ardosa (she/her) is an Asian Canadian artist from Toronto, currently based in Alberta as a professional dancer with the DJD Company. A 2024 graduate of the BFA program at Toronto Metropolitan University and recipient of the Lipson Family endowment award, Gisele has performed repertoire by renowned choreographers such as Lea Ved, Kim Cooper, Guillaume Côté, David Norsworthy, Roberto Campanella, and Robert Glumbeck. As an emerging choreographer, her work has been showcased at events including Fall For Dance North, Toes For Dance CGDF, Innovative Ballet Theatre, and most recently at the Solocoreografico Festival in Frankfurt, Germany. Passionate about innovation and collaboration she continues to explore her artistic boundaries, creating new works and continuing to learn about movement languages within the umbrellas of Jazz and Contemporary dance.
