

Lodoe Laura, born in Ottawa, currently lives in Toronto. As an artist of mixed Tibetan and British-Canadian heritage, her work deals with themes of ancestry, identity and tradition. She earned a BFA in Photography and a MA in Photography Preservation and Collections Management from Toronto Metropolitan University. She completed her masters research residency at Tibet Museum in Dharamsala, where she assisted with the preservation of their photographic archives. Her work has been exhibited at Gallery 44 in Toronto, Filter Photo in Chicago and Printed Matter in New York City. She spent several years working in archives, galleries, museums and artist-run spaces. Lodoe is currently pursuing studies in Traditional Eastern Medicine.
