

Am Johal is Executive Artistic Director of the Indian Summer Festival. He has contributed to multiple books including Ecological Metapolitics, Global Warming and the Sweetness of Life, and O My Friends, There is No Friend: The Politics of Friendship at the End of Ecology. He formerly was Director of SFU's Vancity Office of Community Engagement and Co-Director of SFU's Community Engaged Research Initiative. He is Chair of the Vancouver International Film Festival, Vice-Chair of Greenpeace Canada and serves on the boards of the BC Alliance for Arts and Culture and Urbanarium. He is a former Co-Chair of the Vancity Community Foundation and a member of the Vancouver City Planning Commission. He has worked with government, universities and non-profit organizations on community engagement, social and economic development including on the Vancouver Agreement in the Downtown Eastside. He has a PhD in Communication from the European Graduate School.