Vicki Cummings is an arts administrator and nonprofit leader with extensive experience in music education, organizational leadership and philanthropy. She joined the Vancouver Youth Choir as Executive Director in August 2026, leading operations, finance, fundraising and administration in partnership with Founder and Artistic Director Carrie Tennant.

Before joining VYC, Vicki served as Senior Director of Corporate Programs and Events at the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra and spent five years as Executive Director of the Vancouver Kiwanis Music Festivals, which brings together thousands of young musicians across the Lower Mainland each year. Earlier in her career, she held a corporate development role at the National Arts Centre and senior fundraising positions with United Way Toronto and the YMCA of Greater Toronto.

Vicki has also served on the boards of the Coalition for Music Education and the Canadian Network for Arts and Learning, and as Vice President of MusicFest Canada.
